

Irwin the penguin and the number 5

Irwin the penguin needs to cross to see her mom so they can have fun.

He jumps into the ice, and it feels nice that one is done

He says, Bye, Daneal the seal, and count two from the ice that is blue.

Looking at the sea, he steps into number three

He smiles and says, Four, stepping into the floor

He arrives when he counts five.
Now he and his mom can have plenty of fun.
